

Cristina RADU is a graduate of the Faculty of Economics, from the University of Petrosani, with a degree in accounting and management informatics.

She has been working in the field of human resources since 2007. She joined the REMEDIA team in February 2019 as a Human Resources Specialist, and shortly after, in May 2019, she was promoted as Head of Office and currently Director of Human Resources.

The previous professional activity took place within the Romanian division of the multinational company Sumitomo Electric Wiring System, one of the world's most important manufacturers of car wiring. She was part of the human resources department, where advancing, he went through all the relevant stages. She held, in turn, the positions of instructor, trainer (head of the training department - satellite), human resources assistant, human resources responsible.

She graduated specialization courses in the field of human resources, training course for trainers in Timisoara in 2016, Human Resources Manager course, as well as other courses for personal development.

She is fluent in English.